Partner Program

Partner Program

At AnyVision we believe partnerships should be mutually beneficial. That's why we have designed our new partners model to make it easy for your business to grow by selling outstanding AI products with outstanding partners support.

What Are the Benefits?

The value that we deliver to your business builds on our expertise in the AI space combined with business and marketing excellence. Our Partner Program unlocks three types of tiers (Silver, Gold, and Platinum) for Partners looking to sell our AI products.

OUR COMMITMENT TO YOU AS AN ANYVISION PARTNER

Focus on supporting your business growth

Our partner program is designed to invest in expanding your business opportunities and to accelerate your business. We expose our partners to mutual content and outreach tools to make sure we capture new opportunities together.

Increase the ease of doing business together

Anyvision's partners receive exclusive access to our online knowledge platforms with detailed sales documentation, technical and commercial product training, and pre-sales support required to close deals.

Take a personal and human approach to business

We like doing business as partners to capture opportunities together and deliver customer satisfaction.

Achieve collaborative benefits through better prices

The higher the tier the bigger the discount. We sell more together, we share profits together.

Joint Collateral

Sales and marketing materials are imperative in delivering your value proposition. We will design and provide you and your team with mutual marketing collateral, using your company and your flavor.

Vertical-Based Outreach Campaign

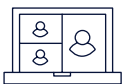

We have the tools and knowledge to drive an impactful outreach campaign to help you target new customers in your region and area of expertise.

Outreach Performance Analysis

After each marketing/outreach activity we will share statistics and insights on each campaign's performance as well as any new leads.

Joint Webinar

Participate in one of AnyVision's webinars to increase your industry and regional exposure. Whether it's AI, biometrics, security, or frictionless access - we will include you in our webinar series as the leader in your space.

Mutual Social Media Campaign

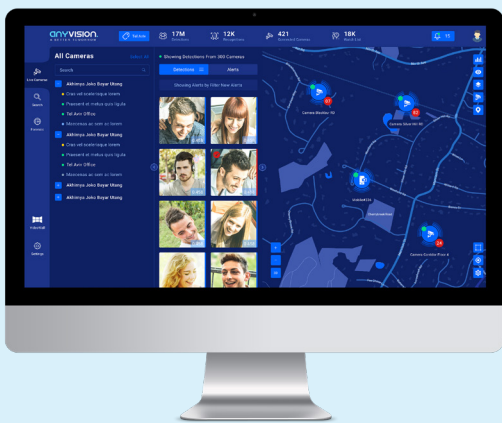

Together, we will design a collaborative campaign with our marketing experts that will allow you to reach your target audience, engage with current and potential customers and drive more sales.
